

SIGURD ANDERSON
GOVERNOR

PIERRE

PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, the Congress of the United States has designated September 17th as Citizenship Day in commemoration of the formation and signing of the Constitution of the United States on that date in 1787, and in recognition of those who, by coming of age or by naturalization, have attained full citizenship; and

WHEREAS, it is most fitting that the citizens of South Dakota should join in an observance of this important date; and

WHEREAS, in the troubled times of this day and age it is well for us to stop and consider our rights and privileges as citizens;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Sigurd Anderson, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim Wednesday, September 17, 1952, as in South Dakota, and urge all South Dakotans to give special thought to their rights and responsibilities under the Constitution.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota to be affixed this 13th day of September, 1952.

Sigurd Anderson
